

refill stroke begin and end synchronization with a switching valve On and Off. A multidimensional apparatus and procedure using up to 8 of the invented fluid pumps for a fully automated procedure such as ICATTM chemistry for cellular protein separation, identification and quantification.